

W D
C 37/833

Edison Motion Picture Films

For Use on Home Kinetoscopes

✽

For EDUCATION AND ENTERTAIN-
MENT AT HOME, IN SCHOOLS,
SUNDAY SCHOOLS, CLUBS,
LODGES, ETC.

✽

J. H. HALLBERG
NATIONAL DISTRIBUTOR
EDISON HOME KINETOSCOPE
36 EAST 23RD ST., NEW YORK

INCORPORATED
ORANGE, N. J.

Form 2192 4-10-12 rbm

W. D.,
L^o
124
BR

CLASS "B"

How Simple

Comedy

Hubby loses his temper when, after almost dying in the attempt to hook his wife's dress, he sees the ease with which his daughter accomplishes it.

The Patience of Miss Job

Comedy

The bad boy nearly spoils a Sunday school picnic by his mischievous pranks, but the teacher finally conquers through patience.

How the Tramp Got the Lunch

Comedy

Handsome Harry rolls a workman down hill in a barrel and steals his lunch, but the revenge is awful to behold.

Casey's Jumping Toothache

Comedy

Laughing gas makes Casey dream that he floats out of the dentist's chair through the ceiling, but he awakens to find his aching tooth removed.

A Trip to Mars

Comedy

An extremely clever trick film, portraying the adventures of a visitor to Mars and his encounter with its amazing inhabitants.

The Capture of the Burglar

Comedy

A clumsy cat sets two trembling parties searching for burglars, each party being terrified by the noise of the other searchers.

Bumptious as an Aviator

Comedy

Our fat friend's aeroplane gets caught by the anchor dangling from a balloon. He thinks he is aviating until the balloonists knock the idea out of him.

Mr. Bumptious on Birds

Comedy

Bumptious, the all wise one, turns taxidermist but he cannot tell a dead owl from a live one—and the drinks are on Bumptious.

The Man Under the Bed

Comedy

A bachelor blunders into an old maid's room, leaving his shoes under her bed. The excitement is intense until he returns.

Bill the Bill Poster

Comedy

Too much Fire Water makes Bill see posters come to life. A poster dances for him and a ham produces sandwiches, but paper drinks are too dry.

The Cap of Fortune

Drama

A fairy rewards a poor man for his kindness, by giving him the Cap of Fortune. A charming little story for young and old.

Expert Glass Blowing

Miscellaneous

The marvels of glass blowing are depicted—spinning glass to a spiderweb-like texture, and other wonderful feats of the glass-blower's art.

The Making of Honey

Miscellaneous

A film dealing with bee keeping, showing modern and scientific methods in operation. The queen is shown in her glory.

Niagara Falls

Miscellaneous

The beauty and grandeur of the Falls are shown in an artistic way which has never before been attained.

Dorothy's Dream

Miscellaneous

Dorothy dreams that her new doll becomes animated by the actions of a Brownie who causes it to walk around the room.

Home of the Seal—Off the Coast of Peru

Miscellaneous

Fishermen of Ancon, Peru, sailing and racing their curious craft, and seals whirling and struggling in the angry waters, make this an extraordinary film.

CLASS "C"

It Pays to Advertise

Comedy

A young lover advertises through every conceivable medium, until his lady fair is forced to accept him—which she does in a novel way.

The Man with the Weak Heart

Comedy

After beating three toughs, lifting a trolley car, holding a five hundred pound stone at arm's length, the invalid is tenderly nursed by his family.

How She Went to the Masquerade

Comedy

A lamp shade, curtains and other tapestry, cleverly arranged by her friends, enable a young lady to attend a masquerade as a Spanish Dancer.

The Jam Closet

Comedy

The small boy, stealing jam, breaks up a flirtation, is covered with stickiness from head to foot and is then thoroughly scoured.

Baby's Fall

Comedy

Baby falls into a half open awning and it requires an ambulance, police patrol, papa, the office boy and a huge crowd to rescue her.

A Night of Terror

Comedy

Two tenderfeet in a Western inn mistake a discussion over the killing of two chickens for a plot to murder them—their sleep is somewhat troubled.

Ashes

Drama

A bachelor's dream, showing the incidents of his love story. The vision dissolves into the ashes of his fire—typical of his life.

The Farmer's Daughter

Comedy

A jealous young lover soaps a log thrown over a stream. His rivals get a ducking but—that isn't all!

Little Miss Moffit and Simian Stone

Miscellaneous

A capital farce, the leading role being played by a clever monkey of marked histrionic ability—a series of side-splitting laughs.

CLASS "D"

The Unfinished Letter

Comedy

Mrs. Brooks finds a love letter which her kind husband has written for the illiterate colored janitor—and then there is trouble.

Betty's Buttons

Drama

Betty's Buttons save her father from becoming a thief, and procure him a much needed position.

A Tale of Two Coats

Comedy

The tall thin man and the short fat man get their clothes mixed on the evening of the Governor's dinner.

The Question Mark

Comedy

Willie tricks papa and the iceman into smudging a "?" on their faces. It also appears on mama and the maid, and naturally there are complications.

Father's Dress Suit

Comedy

A small boy surreptitiously borrows his father's dress suit to attend his little sweetheart's party. Father's wrathful entrance spoils the impression he is making.

A Jar of Cranberry Sauce

Comedy

The dime novel fiend bravely prevents a murder in the next room, which proved to be Silas opening a jar of cranberry sauce.

A Frontier Hero

Drama

Shep, a beautiful collic, saves little Ruth and her heroic brother, when the former is kidnapped by a hostile savage.

For the Queen

Comedy

A charming little story of May Day. The youthful king is lost in his search for the queen's stolen crown, but is finally rewarded.

'Tis Now the Very Witching Time of Night

Comedy

A young clubman has a spooky time in a haunted house, through the kind assistance of his friends and a sleight-of-hand artist.

Riders of the Plains

Miscellaneous

An incident in the life of the Northwestern Mounted Police of Canada, showing that wonderful organization in action against some Indian horse thieves.

CLASS "E"

Money to Burn

Comedy

Hungry Bill has a beautiful dream of untold wealth, "swell" clothes, elegant cafes and a Turkish bath—then the policeman wakes him up.

Papa's Sweetheart

Drama

The happiness of a widower's little family is saved by his daughter, who re-awakens his old love by appearing before him in her dead mother's dress.

Egyptian Mystery

Miscellaneous

The iceman has a terrible time with a pendant which makes everything he touches vanish. A maid, his wagon and a street car are among the victims.

CLASS "F"

An International Heartbreaker

Comedy

Overcome by merriment at the predicament of her lovers, the heartbreaker turns the hose on herself, but don't laugh or you will get a ducking.

The Amateur William Tell

Comedy

The story of William Tell sets the small boy off on a series of Tell-like escapades which re-act upon his conscience when he dreams.

Far From the Mad'ding Crowd

Comedy

A 260 pound man seeks relief from the heat. His adventures at beautiful "Hillcrest," are screamingly funny.

A Dash to Death

Drama

A worthless Italian Duke in trying to escape his American wife's lover, dashes over a 300 foot precipice in an automobile and is buried beneath it.

Cocoa Industry, Trinidad, B.W. I.

Miscellaneous

The cocoa industry is shown in all its phases, from planting to final consumption in the reception room of a New York hostess.

CLASS "H"

Max and Maurice

Comedy

The bad boys of the village play all sorts of tricks upon their neighbors until they are finally ground up in the miller's flour mill.

The Ransom of Red Chief

Comedy

Old Tightwad's boy is held for ransom, but he makes life so miserable for his captors that they pay twenty-five dollars to get rid of him.

The Sign of the Three Labels

Comedy

Wherein is contained a horrible lesson for the anti-tipping agitators, gathered from the experiences of a couple who fail to tip the bell boys, etc.

The Doctor

Drama

A great specialist finds his love of humanity greater than his love for one woman, and she honors him for it.

Declaration of Independence

Miscellaneous

A finished and highly instructive handling of this momentous period in the history of our nation, produced with close attention to details.

Jack and the Beanstalk

Miscellaneous

Jack climbs to the giant's castle on the great beanstalk. He steals the giant's treasures and is saved from him by the good fairy.

The Battle of Trafalgar

Miscellaneous

Historically correct in every detail, the film shows the great battle with the burning ships, and finally the deck of the "Victory" and Nelson's fall.

Prices of Film

The pictures are divided into eight classes according to the cost of producing the finished films. Each class contains a wide variety of subjects. The following table shows the various classes, prices of each, and the fee charged for exchanging them:

| Class | Price of Film | Exchange Fee |
|-------|---------------|--------------|
| A | $ 2.50 | $.30 |
| B | 5.00 | .40 |
| C | 7.50 | .50 |
| D | 10.00 | .60 |
| E | 12.50 | .70 |
| F | 15.00 | .80 |
| G | 17.50 | .90 |
| H | 20.00 | 1.00 |

LANTERN SLIDES, each slide containing 10 views each $.50

Film Exchange Plan

THE film you buy can be exchanged for other pictures of the same class and the exchanges kept up indefinitely. The procedure is this: You buy a film. After you have grown tired of it, mail the film to Thomas A. Edison, Incorporated, Orange, N. J., and tell us what film of the same class you want in exchange. You enclose with the film the necessary number of coupons to cover the exchange. This is all you have to do. We do the rest.

These coupons are sold in books of fifty for $5.00 by all authorized dealers. Each coupon book contains a number of slips bearing our address. The film container does not have to be wrapped up. You simply paste one of these address slips upon it and it is then ready to be stamped and put in the mail.